Part one

Introductory Provisions

Article 1
General Provisions

(1) The Czech University of Life Sciences Prague (hereinafter “CZU”) is a public higher education institution of the university type within the system of higher education institutions in the Czech Republic. Its competence is determined by Section 1, et seq., Act No. 111/1998 Coll., on Higher Education Institutions and on Amending and Supplementing Other Acts (Act on Higher Education Institutions), as amended (hereinafter the “Act”).

(2) CZU, its faculties, university institute and other components carry out educational activities in accredited Bachelor’s, Master’s and Doctoral study programmes and programmes of lifelong learning. In relation thereto, CZU carries out scientific and research, developmental and innovation, artistic or other creative activities (hereinafter “creative activities”) and activities relating thereto. In relation to fulfilling its basic task according to the previous sentence, CZU also carries out additional activities pursuant to Section 20, paragraph 2 of the Act.

(3) CZU conducts habilitation proceedings and procedures for granting full professorship in fields of study published on the official part of the website. The details of habilitation proceedings and procedures for granting full professorship are set out in the Rules for Habilitation Proceedings or Proceedings for appointing a Professor of the Czech University of Life Sciences Prague as an internal regulation of CZU pursuant to Section 17, paragraph 1, letter k), Section 72, paragraph 13, and Section 74, paragraph 7 of the Act.

(4) CZU shall be entitled to use the abbreviated name “CZU”. In official international relations, CZU either uses the following complete name in the Czech language, or the complete name in the English language: “Czech University of Life Sciences Prague”. In normal international relations, CZU shall be entitled to use the abbreviated name in the English language: “CZU Prague” or “CZU”. English equivalents of Czech names of the parts of CZU are provided in Annex No. 2.

(5) CZU is a legal entity.

(6) The registered office of CZU is Prague – Suchbátka, Kamýcká Street No. 129. Company Id No: 60460709. Data Box Identifier: 3hdj9cb. Website (public part of CZU website, faculties, Institute of Education and Counselling/hereinafter “IEC”) and other part pursuant to the Act): www.czu.cz

Furthermore, regulations of lower legal force issued in particular for determining process procedures at CZU and for determining rights and obligations of CZU employees (hereinafter “internal rules of CZU”); the internal rules of CZU are particularly considered directives, decisions that are published on the CZU website.

(8) All references in this Statute to a person in the masculine (e.g. a “student”, “Dean,” etc.) shall include persons of any gender.

Article 2
Formation of CZU

(1) CZU was established by Governmental Decree No. 30/1952 Coll., on Changes in the Organisation of Higher Education Institutions. The origin of university agricultural education in Bohemia dates back to 1906, when the first independent agricultural higher education institute was established as an agricultural department attached to the Czech Technical University by the Decree dated 26 October 1906 of Franz

Joseph I. This department was transformed into the University of Agricultural and Forestry Engineering of the Czech Technical University in 1920, and this organisational structure remained unchanged until 1952, which saw the establishment of the independent University of Agriculture Prague.

(2) The original name of CZU - “University of Agriculture Prague” was subsequently changed into “Czech University of Life Sciences Prague” by Act No. 192/1994 Coll.

(3) The Czech University of Life Sciences Prague, which is a public higher education institution in compliance with the Act since 1 January 1999, is a legal successor of the following entities: Czech University of Life Sciences Prague, CZU Halls of Residence and Refectory, CZU Farm Estate at Lány and CZU Forest Establishment at Kostelec nad Černými lesy.

Part Two

- (4) The authorisation of CZU to carry out study programmes under the conditions set out by the Act arises from institutional accreditation, or from accreditation of the study programme.
- (5) A supervisor is appointed for each study programme from the academic staff. The guarantor of the study programme is appointed and dismissed by the Dean of the relevant faculty, or by the IEC Director. The guarantor of a study programme is responsible for the securing and development of the professional level of a study programme, regular evaluation, and for ensuring its quality and content-based coordination of instruction.
- (6) Instruction may be provided at the seat of CZU or in locations where CZU provides accredited study programmes.

Article 22 Admission Procedure

- (1) The general requirements for being accepted to study at CZU and the requisites of the admission procedure are set out by Sections 48 to 50 of the Act.
- (2) The admission procedure for the given academic year shall be announced by a faculty or IEC upon prior approval by the academic senate of the faculty, or AS CZU in the case of IEC, in the form of an order of the Dean or IEC Director in relation to the Act, the internal regulations of CZU and the internal rules of CZU (hereinafter “admission procedure declaration”), which is published in the public part of the website of the faculty or IEC.

(3) The admission procedure declaration sets out the detailed rules for the admission procedure and the requirements for being accepted to studies, and must contain, in particular:

- a) information on the course of the admission procedure and requirements for admission to study,
- b) the method and form of submitting an application for study,
- c) the method of payment of the fee for acts related to the admission procedure set out pursuant to Section 58, paragraph 1 of the Act and the method of proving the payment,
- d) the method and form of inviting candidates to an entrance examination, the form and content of the entrance examination with the specification of subjects and required knowledge,
- e) the method of assessing the results of the entrance examination and other facts proving the prerequisites for studying the given study programme,
- f) criteria for waiving the entrance examination,
- g) other criteria for being accepted for study for individual study programmes and other requisites set out by the law for administrative proceedings pursuant to Section 50 of the Act (hereinafter “procedure for admission of a candidate to study”),
- h) the method of assessing excuses during an absence during an entrance examination, or the determination of the possibility to take the entrance examination on an alternative date, and
- i) binding dates for candidates, CZU and the faculty or IEC, primarily dates of entrance examinations and dates when candidates will be allowed to access their files in accordance with Section 50, paragraph 5 of the Act.

(4) Applications for study shall be sent by candidates in electronic form according to the instructions set out in the admission procedure declaration. Delivery of an application for study in the form set out in the admission procedure declaration shall initiate the procedure for admission of a candidate to study; to this procedure apply the relevant proper provisions of the Act and Act No. 500/2004 Coll., Code of Administrative Procedure, as amended (hereinafter the “Code of Administrative Procedure”); participants of these proceedings shall only be applicants whose application for study this regards.

(5) Applications for study shall be submitted by the deadline set out by the admission procedure declaration. In exceptional cases, the Dean or the IEC Director shall decide on accepting an application at a later date.

(6) If a candidate fails to fulfil the requisites required in the admission procedure declaration, this may constitute a reason to halt the procedure for admission of a candidate to study. Unless a candidate pays the fee for the steps involved in the admission procedure, the application for study shall be understood as having been withdrawn.

(7) A protocol shall be kept of an entrance examination, in which are recorded the results of such an examination and evaluation of other facts that are relevant for admission to study.

(8) The decision may be delivered to a candidate via the CZU electronic information system in accordance with Section 69a of the Act; in such case, the moment of delivery shall be understood as a moment when the candidate for admission to study logs into the CZU electronic information system after the documents are made available to the candidate. Unless the candidate logs into the above system within 10 days of the day on which the document was made available to the candidate in the CZU electronic information system, the document shall be understood as delivered on the last day of the above period. The requisites of other forms of delivery in the procedure for admission of a candidate to study are set out by the Act, the Code of Administrative Procedure, or in the admission procedure declaration.

(9) A candidate shall be entitled to file an appeal against a decision that did not grant the request of the candidate for admission to study, and it shall be submitted to an Administrative Authority that issued the decision, within 15 days from the date the decision was announced. The appeal must have the requisites specified in Section 37, paragraph 2, Code of Administrative Procedure, and it must contain data about the decision it regards, in what scope it is being appealed, and where a violation of legal regulations or incorrectness of the decision or proceedings that preceded it, is being perceived. The Dean or the IEC Director can only fully allow the appeal and cancel or change their decision due a violation of the law or internal regulation of CZU or part thereof; otherwise, they shall submit the appeal to the Rector as the administrative body of appeal pursuant to Section 68, paragraph 5 of the Act. During an appeal, the Rector shall proceed pursuant to Section 50, paragraph 6 and Section 68, paragraph 4 of the Act and pursuant to the Code of Administrative Procedure. Pursuant to Section 10, paragraph 4 of the Act, the Rector can be represented by the Vice-Rector with regard to a decision on an appeal pursuant to this paragraph.

Article 23

Course of Study

The requisites of a course of study are set out by Sections 51 to 57a of the Act; the details of a course of study and decision-making on the rights and obligations of students pursuant to Section 68 of the Act are set out by the Study and Examination Rules for Bachelor and Master Study Programmes of the Czech University of Life Sciences Prague and the Study and Examination Rules for PhD studies of the Czech University of Life Sciences Prague (hereinafter jointly the “Study Rules”). The relevant provisions of the Act and the Code of Administrative Procedure apply for the decision-making on the rights and obligations of students pursuant to the Act.

Article 24

Conditions for Admission and Study of Foreigners

(1) In addition to the conditions set out by this statute, the requirements for admitting foreigners for study are subject to the fulfilment of obligations that arise from international treaties concluded by the Czech Republic, and agreements concluded by CZU.

(2) CZU may determine different conditions for admission of scholarship recipients within the implementation of programmes for the provision of government development scholarships for study at higher education institutions in the Czech Republic, approved by the government pursuant to the Act on the International Development Cooperation or programmes announced by the Ministry under Section 91b of the Act.

(3) With the exception of foreigners who study pursuant to Section 58, paragraph 4 of the Act, CZU shall test foreigners in terms of their knowledge of the Czech language as part of the admission procedure. This condition shall be fulfilled by foreigners who achieved complete secondary education with graduation exam, or completed Bachelor’s, Master’s or Doctoral study programmes taught in the Czech or Slovak languages.

Article 25

Fees related to Study and Payments for Administrative Acts and Administrative Services

(1) The basic rules for fees related to study are set out by Section 58 of the Act. General regulations on fees do not apply to fees related to study.

(2) The amount of the fee for acts associated with the admission procedure pursuant to Section 58, paragraphs 1 and 2 of the Act shall be at most 20% of the base set out pursuant to Section 58, paragraph 2 of the Act; the specific amount of the fee is determined and published pursuant to paragraph 12. Every candidate wishing to study at CZU shall be obliged to pay the fee, and the fee shall be due by the deadline set out in the admission procedure declaration.

(3) Pursuant to Section 58, paragraph 3 of the Act, the amount of the fee for study (hereinafter “fee for prolonged study”) is at least one and a half times the basis set out pursuant to Section 58, paragraph 2 of the Act for each additional six months of study of a student for whom the fee for prolonged study is assessed; the specific amount of the fee is determined and published pursuant to paragraph 12. Students who fulfil the condition for determining a fee for prolonged study pursuant to Section 58, paragraph 3 of the Act, shall be obliged to pay the fee; the due date of the fee is part of the decision on the assessment of the fee. The decision to assess this fee is issued by the Vice-Rector, who is entrusted to do so by the Rector, within 30 days from the date the fact was ascertained that the student is obliged to pay the fee for prolonged study, and at least 90 days before the fee is due; the fee is always assessed for a period of six months, starting from the date that specific fee obligations arises; in accordance with Section 68, paragraph 3 of the Act, the issuance of a decision is the first act in the proceedings.

(4) Pursuant to Section 58, paragraph 4 of the Act, the amount of the fee for study in a study programme in a foreign language (hereinafter “fee for study in a foreign language”) for a specific CZU faculty shall be determined by the Dean of the faculty, whilst taking into consideration in particular the economic demands of the study, the costs for ensuring the quality of the study and the current situation in a similar area of education, after prior discussion in the CZU Rector’s Advisory Council; the specific fee amount is published pursuant to paragraph 12. The fee for study in Doctoral study programmes may not be set, and fees for study in Bachelor’s and Master’s study programmes may not be set in the instances specified in Section 58, paragraph 4 of the Act.

(5) The amount of the fee for acts associated with the assessment (evaluation) of the conditions compliance for admission to study pursuant to Section 48, paragraph 4, letter e) of the Act shall be at the most 20 % of the base set out pursuant to Section 58, paragraph 2 of the Act; the specific amount of the fee is determined and published pursuant to paragraph 12. Every applicant to study wishing to study at CZU is obliged to pay the fee, and the fee shall be due by the deadline set out in the admission procedure publication.

(6) The decision on the assessment of the fee for study in a foreign language pursuant to paragraph 4 shall be issued by the Dean or his entrusted Vice-Dean of a faculty, and the fee shall be due before registering for study, or before the date of registration for study in the following year; the Dean or his entrusted Vice-Dean may decrease the fee amount to the level of the fee amount that was valid in the academic year in which the student registered for study. In accordance with Section 68, paragraph 3 of the Act, the issuing of the decision pursuant to this paragraph is the first act in the proceedings.

(7) Students shall be entitled to appeal the decision on the assessment of study fees pursuant to paragraphs 3 and 4 to the Rector through the Administrative Authority of the First Instance that issued the contested Decision within 15 days from the date of notification of this decision. The appeal may include a request to decrease, waive or defer the payment of the study fee. The appeal must have the requisites specified in Section 37, paragraph 2, Code of Administrative Procedure, and it must contain data about the decision it regards, in what scope it is being appealed, and where a violation of legal regulations or incorrectness of the decision or proceedings that preceded it, is being perceived. Filing such an appeal has a suspensive effect on the payment of this fee. The Administrative Authority of the First Instance which issued the contested decision, can only fully allow the appeal and cancel or change its decision due a violation of the law or internal regulation of CZU or part thereof; otherwise, it shall transfer the appeal to the Rector as the administrative body of appeal pursuant to Section 68, paragraph 4 of the Act. During an appeal, the Rector shall proceed pursuant to Section 68, paragraph 4 of the Act and pursuant to the Code of Administrative Procedure. Within decision-making on an appeal against a decision on the assessment of the fee associated with studies, pursuant to paragraphs 3 and 4, the Rector may decrease, waive or defer the due date of the fee whilst taking into consideration in particular the study results and social situation of the student, or for reasons worthy of special consideration. Pursuant to Section 10, paragraph 4 of the Act, the Rector may be represented by the Vice-Rector with regard to a decision on an appeal pursuant to this paragraph.

(8) Fees associated with study pursuant to paragraphs 3 and 4 and compensation for administrative acts and services provided pursuant to paragraph 11 shall generally be paid via a transfer from a bank account, or via a cash deposit at the CZU cash desk, and the fees shall be considered paid as soon as they are credited to the CZU account or paid in cash at the CZU cash desk.

(9) The provisions pursuant to this Article on the fee amount associated with study also apply to foreign students studying at CZU under the same conditions as citizens of the Czech Republic, unless otherwise stipulated in an international treaty that is binding for the Czech Republic.

(10) Fees associated with study for foreigners arriving as part of interuniversity or interfaculty contracts shall be determined by such contracts; the contracts must be in accordance with international treaties that are binding for the Czech Republic.

(11) Via an internal regulation of CZU, the Rector shall determine the payment amount for administrative acts and services provided to students outside the scope of study in a study programme, or for other persons, and the amount of costs associated with these acts and services.

(12) The fee amounts associated with the study pursuant to paragraphs 2, 3 and 5 and the payment amount for acts and services pursuant to paragraph 11 are determined by the Rector via an internal regulation of CZU and are published in accordance with Section 58, paragraph 5 of the Act on the public part of the CZU website. The fee amounts associated with study pursuant to paragraph 4 are published in accordance with Section 58, paragraph 5 of the Act on the public part of faculty and IEC websites.

(13) Fees pursuant to paragraph 3 constitute income of the CZU scholarship fund; other fees are income from CZU educational and creative activities (hereinafter the “Main Activities of CZU”).

Article 26

Recognition of Foreign University Education and Qualifications

(1) At request of a graduate of a foreign higher education institution, provided that CZU implements or is authorised to implement a study programme in at least one of the fields of education to which the foreign study programme belongs, CZU shall issue a decision on the application for recognition of foreign higher education and qualification in the Czech Republic.

(2) The conditions under which a certificate of recognition of higher education or part thereof in the Czech Republic can be issued are determined by Sections 89 to 90a of the Act.

(3) Information on the conditions pursuant to paragraph 2 and related instructions is published in the public part of the CZU website.

Article 27

CZU carries out life-long learning programmes. Admission to study and conditions of study within life-long learning are set out by the Rules of the Life-long Learning Programme of the Czech University of Life Sciences Prague, as an internal regulation of CZU pursuant to Section 17, paragraph 1, letter k) of the Act.

Part Five

Students and Employees of CZU

Article 28

Students

(1) The rights and obligations of students are set out by Sections 61 to 63 of the Act, Study Rules. The consequences of a breach of student obligations are regulated in Sections 64 to 69 of the Act and in the Disciplinary Rules of faculties, or Disciplinary Rules of the Czech University of Life Sciences Prague for students not registered for study at any of the faculties.

(2) A candidate for study at CZU shall become a CZU student on the date of their registration for study by the deadline set out in accordance with the admission procedure declaration, in accordance with Section 61 of the Act; other details regarding the status of CZU students and changes thereto are set out by the Study Rules.

(3) A student who studies at two or more study programmes at two or more parts of CZU may be officially matriculated at one of the parts of CZU where they are registered for study.

(4) Students may be awarded scholarships pursuant to Section 91 of the Act. Scholarships are awarded pursuant to the Scholarship Rules of the Czech University of Life Sciences Prague as an internal regulation of CZU pursuant to Section 17, paragraph 1, letter h) of the Act.

(5) Students who completed studies pursuant to Section 55, paragraph 1 of the Act shall take an oath. The wordings of the oaths are specified in the statutes of individual faculties and IEC.

(6) In the proceedings under Sections 50, 54b or 68 of the Act, CZU shall deliver documents to participants in the proceedings via the CZU electronic information system. In the case of proceedings under Section 50, CZU, the faculty or IEC shall publish information for candidates regarding this method of delivery, together with the details published under Section 49, paragraph 5 of the Act. Decisions on admission to study may be delivered in paper form to candidates in person.

(7) A document delivered via the CZU electronic information system is deemed as delivered at the moment when the participant in the proceedings logs into the CZU electronic information system after the documents are made available to the participant. Unless the participant logs into the above system within 10 days of the day on which the document was made available to the participant in the CZU electronic information system, the document shall be understood as delivered on the last day of the above period.

(8) A study candidate, student or a person whose studies have been interrupted may make filings to CZU electronically only via the CZU electronic information system, provided that a document filed as described above is deemed as signed. The filing is deemed as having been made by its confirmation in the CZU electronic information system. CZU, faculty or IEC shall publish information for candidates regarding this method of delivery, together with the details published under Section 49, paragraph 5 of the Act.

(9) If the filing to be made to CZU via the CZU electronic information system includes documents proving the facts necessary for the relevant application, such documents must be created by authorised conversion of documents or must contain an electronic signature enabling an unambiguous verification of the identity of the person signing the document. Where it is necessary to provide original documents, the person submitting the filing shall be asked to submit those documents in paper form within a time-limit set in the request.

Article 29

- (2) Official notice boards are used to publish information required by legal regulations.

Part Nine

Management of CZU

Article 38

Rules of Management of CZU

- (1) CZU shall perform its management according to the budget of costs and revenues prepared for a calendar year and mid-term perspective of the CZU budget for the least/minimum following two years. The budget must not be prepared as a deficient budget. The methodology and procedure for the creation of the CZU budget shall be issued by the Rector upon approval by AS CZU via an internal regulation of CZU. Upon approval by the Rector's Advisory Council, in accordance with the Act, the Rector shall submit the budget for approval to AS CZU and CZU MB. After the end of the given year, CZU shall conduct the settlement with the state budget and shall submit this settlement to the Ministry within the fixed time-limits.
- (2) The basic sources of the CZU budget are subsidies, contributions and other incomes pursuant to Section 18, paragraph 2 of the Act and special legal regulations.¹⁾
- (3) When managing funds provided from the state budget, CZU shall be obliged to economize and to use these financial means efficiently and purposefully in accordance with the conditions for the use of contributions and subsidies. The Rector shall be responsible towards the Minister of Education, Youth and Sports for the efficient use of contributions and subsidies, settlement of subsidies with the state budget and due management of assets.

¹⁾E.g. Sections 12 to 14 of Act No. 218/2000 Coll., on Budgetary Rules and on Amending Certain Related Acts (Budgetary Rules), as amended, Decree of the Ministry of Finance 560/2006 Coll., on Participation of the state Budget in Financing Assets Reproduction Programmes, Act No. 130/2002 Coll., on the Support of Research, Development and Innovations from Public Funds and Amending Certain Related Acts (the Act on Research and Development Support), as amended.

(4) CZU shall be obliged to keep proper records of assets and to establish rules of disposal of assets via an integral regulation, and to adhere to general accounting regulations.

(5) CZU shall carry out management as one accounting entity, and the manner of its accounting is regulated in Section 20 of the Act. It is divided into accounting components for the internal needs of monitoring and evaluating costs and revenues.

(6) Within its supplementary activities, CZU shall carry out activities for consideration that are linked with its primary activities or activities that should serve for a more efficient use of human resources and assets. Within its supplementary activities, CZU shall also carry out agricultural, forestry and other activities which are necessary for ensuring further activities of CZU in the area of science, research, education and teaching, testing, or administration and management of own property. CZU shall be obliged to consistently separate costs and revenues related to supplementary activities. A supplementary activity may not endanger the quality, scope and availability of activities for which CZU was established.

(7) CZU shall acquire funds for securing activities provided from current funds pursuant to Section 18, paragraph 2 of the Act, in particular from:

- a) contributions from the state budget for educational and creative activities,
- b) support of research, experimental development and innovations from public funds,
- c) subsidies from the state budget,
- d) fees related to study,
- e) revenues from assets,
- f) incomes or contributions other than those specified in letter a) from the state budget, from state funds, from the National Fund, budgets of municipalities and regions,
- g) revenues from supplementary activities,
- h) revenues from gifts and inheritance.

(8) CZU shall acquire funds for ensuring activities financed from capital assets from the following, in particular from:

- a) contributions or subsidies from the state budget,
- b) individual or systemic capital transfers (investment subsidies) from the state budget,
- c) public budgets, state funds and the budget of the European Union,
- d) own sources of the fixed assets reproduction fund,
- e) by combining resources,
- f) loans provided by monetary institutions,
- g) special-purpose gifts.

(9) CZU shall be legally entitled to receive contributions from the state budget in order to provide accredited study programmes and life-long learning programmes and related creative activities, and subsidies for the development of CZU. CZU may obtain a subsidy from the state budget to accommodate and to provide meals to students.

(10) Other revenues are a source obtained through the own activities of CZU and may be used to finance its activities. If revenue is provided contractually for a specific purpose, CZU shall draw the funds in compliance with such an agreement.

(11) Capital funds acquired from individual or systemic capital transfers (investment subsidies) from the state budget shall be strictly purpose-bound and are the subject of annual settlements.

(12) CZU established the following funds:

- a) reserve fund,

- b) fixed assets reproduction fund,
- c) scholarship fund,
- d) remuneration fund,
- e) special-purpose means fund,
- f) social fund,
- g) operational means fund.

(13) Creation and use of the funds:

a) The reserve fund is formed:

- from allocation from profit after taxation,
- from the transfer of funds from the fixed assets reproduction fund, remuneration fund and operational means fund.

The reserve fund is used primarily for the following purposes:

- to cover losses in the following accounting periods,
- payment of penalties and to cover temporary lack of funds (e.g. as a source for pre-financing projects),
- to transfer funds to the fixed assets reproduction fund, remuneration fund and operational means fund.

b) The fixed assets reproduction fund, which is formed:

- from allocation from profit after taxation,
- from balance of contributions pursuant to Section 18, paragraph 2, letter a) of the Act as of 31 December of the current year,
- depreciations of tangible and intangible assets,
- from net book value (up to the amount of book depreciations) of assets,
- donations,
- by the transfer of funds from the reserve fund, remuneration fund and operational means fund

The fixed assets reproduction fund is used for the following purposes:

- to obtain long-term assets,
- to pay instalments on investment credits and loans,
- to provide funds to other entities as part of an agreement on joint investment activities,
- for contributions into legal entities and payment of costs for the establishment thereof,
- to transfer funds into the reserve fund, remuneration fund and operational means fund.

c) Scholarship fund, which is formed from:

- fees for study pursuant to Section 58, paragraph 6 of the Act,
- transfers of tax-deductible costs pursuant to a special legal regulation.²⁾

Funds from the scholarship fund can be used to pay out scholarships pursuant to the Scholarship Rules of the Czech University of Life Sciences Prague as an internal regulation of CZU pursuant to Section 17, paragraph 1, letter h) of the Act.

²⁾ Section 24, paragraph 2, letter zr) Act No. 586/1992 Coll., on Value Added Tax, as amended.

d) The remuneration fund, which is formed from:

- allocation from profit after taxation,
- the transfer of means from the reserve fund, fixed assets reproduction fund and operational means fund

The means of the fund may be used for the following purposes:

- payment of salaries and other monetary considerations, and to finance related charges in accordance with the Internal Salary Regulation of the Czech University of Life Sciences Prague as an internal regulation pursuant to Section 17, paragraph 1, letter d) of the Act,
- to transfer means from the reserve fund, fixed assets reproduction fund and operational means fund.

e) The special-purpose means fund, which is formed from:

- special-purpose gifts, with the exception of gifts intended for acquisition and technical revaluation of long-term assets,
- special-purpose funds from abroad,
- special-purpose public funds, including means of purposeful and institutional support of research and development from public funds that could not be used by CZU during the budget year in which they were provided pursuant to the rules set out by the Act.

The special-purpose means fund may be used only for the purpose for which these means have been provided to CZU.

f) The social fund, which is formed from:

- the basic allocation at the expense of costs up to the amount approved by AS CZU upon a proposal of the Rector from the annual volume of costs of CZU accounted for salaries, compensation for salaries and remuneration for the on-call duty.

The means of the social fund may be used for the following purposes:

- non-cash benefits provided to employees under Section 6, paragraph 9, letter d of Act No. 586/1992 Coll., on Income Tax, as amended, in the areas of health, culture, recreation, education and sports,
- contributions to tax-advantaged retirement savings products for CZU employees under Section 15a of Act No. 586/1992, on Income Tax, as amended,
- and for other purposes approved by the AS CZU at the Rector's proposal.

Detailed conditions for the provision of the above-mentioned performance are set forth in internal regulations of CZU.

g) The operational means fund, which is formed from:

- profit after taxation, from the balance of a contribution as pursuant to Section 18, paragraph 2, letter a) of the Act as of 31 December of the current year,
- from the balance of contributions pursuant to Section 18 as of December of the current year,
- transfer of means from the reserve fund, fixed assets reproduction fund and remuneration fund.

Resources of the operational means fund may be used for the following purposes:

- to cover running (non-investment) costs in the current calendar year,
- to transfer means to the reserve fund, remuneration fund and fixed assets reproduction fund.

(14) As necessary, CZU shall be entitled to transfer means amongst its funds, specifically via the reserve fund, fixed assets reproduction fund, remuneration fund and operational means fund. Transfers shall be decided on by the Rector.

(15) CZU may distribute profit after taxation into its funds only if any losses from previous periods have been covered. Balances of funds as of 31 December of the current year are transferred to the following budget year.

(16) When profit is distributed after taxation among individual funds of CZU, the specific needs of CZU and the contribution of organisational parts to achieving the profit shall be taken into consideration; the Rector shall decide on the distribution of profit, unless otherwise specified in the Act or another special legal regulation.

(17) The means of the budget shall only be used for financing activities for the purpose of which CZU was established, and for financing supplementary activities pursuant to Section 20, paragraph 2 of the Act.

(18) CZU shall be entitled to accept credits, returnable financial assistance and loans for running and capital expenses, so long as no claims towards the state budget arise from their acceptance, and if their return ability is secured within the management of CZU.

(19) CZU shall not be entitled to take over liability for the financial debt of another entity and to establish a lien on real estate. CZU shall not be entitled to become a shareholder of a public commercial company or a general partner of a limited partnership. CZU shall also not be authorised to contribute to commercial corporations or cooperatives immovable assets acquired into ownership from the state, a provided contribution pursuant to Section 18, paragraph 3 of the Act, and provided subsidy pursuant to Section 18, paragraph 5 of the Act. The Rector shall decide on contributions with a monetary or non-monetary subject to legal entities via a special decision upon the prior written consent of CZU MB, and in accordance with Rules for providing monetary and non-monetary contributions to legal entities and discussing proposals for the establishment of legal entities as an internal regulation of CZU pursuant to Section 17, paragraph 1, letter k) and Section 20, paragraph 3 of the Act.

(20) The state shall not be liable for CZU liabilities.

(21) Payments of sanctions are a part of CZU costs.

Article 39

Assets

(1) CZU owns assets that are necessary for the activities for which CZU was established, and for activities that it carries out in a supplementary additional activity pursuant to Section 20 of the Act.

Article 40

Financing of Facilities

(1) CZU finances capital and running expenses of its facilities having the character of refectories, dormitories, lodging houses, educational facilities for youths and adults, operation of libraries, gymnasias and other sports facilities, if these shall serve for employees or students of CZU.

(2) If CZU uses facilities pursuant to paragraph 1 in conjunction with another entity, CZU shall contribute to costs and revenues according to the ratio of utilization as stipulated in an agreement concluded for this purpose. In addition, lump-sum payments for the pro rata part of utilization of these facilities may be stipulated in the relevant agreement.

Article 41

Provision of Contributions to other Persons

- (1) In accordance with the relevant legal regulations, CZU shall be entitled to provide food or meals allowance for employees.
- (2) CZU shall be entitled to provide contributions to students' meals from the funds of subsidies granted by the Ministry, and from its own resources.

Part Ten

Interim and Closing Provisions

Article 42

Interim Provisions

- (1) In an internal regulation or internal rule of CZU or part thereof that references the wording of a statute effective before this statute comes into effect, the reference to the relevant provisions of this statute shall be exercised.

Article 43
